Review of Property:

An obsessively attentive management team ensures that this intimate, casually refined resort remains among the very best accommodations in St. Barths—if not the entire Caribbean. It's not hard to understand why the property boasts a 72% high-season return rate—it just keeps improving each season. A technology upgrade in 2007 added a reception-area computer for guests and broadband to rooms, which are huge and luxuriously outfitted, all with modern four-posters, French fabrics, and fine art, plus superb marble baths (all with a tub or Jacuzzi tub, both rare on the island). In 2009, renovations added four enormous, beyond-fabulous beachfront suites. The beachside La Case de l'Isle restaurant serves fine nouvelle cuisine on a pretty veranda. The spa is by Molton Brown. The beautiful white-sand beach couldn't be more pristine. Good off-season and honeymoon packages help to keep the rates in check.

Hotel Details: 12 rooms, 5 suites, 13 bungalows, 1 2-bedroom villa

- In-room: refrigerator, DVD, Internet.
- In-hotel: restaurant, room service, tennis court, bar, pools, gym, spa, Internet terminal.
- Rate includes: Continental breakfast

Review of Property:

The Ritz-Carlton Powerscourt is nestled among the hills of Wicklow on one of the most scenic estates in Ireland. It boasts two championship golf courses, a 30,000 square foot luxury spa by ESPA and Gordon Ramsay's signature restaurant, Gordon Ramsay at Powerscourt. There are 200 guest rooms including two private spa suites and over 10,000 square feet of meeting space. Beside the city of Dublin, the Palladian estate is a popular attraction with neighboring Powerscourt House and Gardens to explore.

Irish native, Jill O'Hare, Director of Sales & Marketing drew my attention to the charm and characteristics of Ireland and its history by the grandeur of The Ritz-Carlton Powerscourt and its fine amenities. A perfect place for a celebrity client to enjoy the country of Ireland with class and style.

Review of Property:

Exclusive in Italy is probably the most comprehensive travel group that I had the pleasure to meet and learn about. Celebrity clients will find a selection of the finest tailor made vacations and concierge services. Top executive, Pino Gargiulo had a thorough presentation which caught my grave interests by how detailed and precise their services are. From security to private exclusive villas or from butlers to sky diving - seems to be no vacation that can't be had or no request that can't be fulfilled. Celebrity clients will undoubtedly be impressed by what Exclusive in Italy has to offer and celebrity assistants will not be disappointed by working with them. The careful thoughts that go into each vacation were enough for me to choose them as one of my top picks from ILTM!

Review of Property:

This property surprisingly struck a chord with me. It is among the few out there that is outfitted with the most top notch security and passageways for celebrities, diplomats, officials, and royalty. The location is walking distance to the White House and needless to say that it is a full service hotel. With only 99 tastefully designed suites, it's bigger than a boutique hotel yet smaller than a 5-star chain; the perfect setting for the celebrity client that prefers to stay on the down low. There is a high class atmosphere to this property although it stands far from snobbery. There are original documents signed by Thomas Jefferson himself lining a hall leading to a library filled with prominent books which I find to be a classic and historical touch.

If any property is prepared for high profile guests, it is The Jefferson. I suppose that being in DC plays a major role in their quality and standards of service as they see such distinguished travelers often but I have been around the world and stayed at the finest hotels and never have I come across a property so thoroughly prepared for the most fastidious or private guest.

Review of Property:

A very unique and intriguing, off-the-beaten-path property but one that has something for every type of guest. From the rugged to the pampered, The Ranch is a place that will fill the heart of hearts; if not by the grandeur of each log cabin, luxury tent, or superb services then undoubtedly by the splendor of nature itself. With great mountains, green rolling hills and rivers flowing as if it had somewhere to go, it would be quite a challenge to reject its majestic beauty.

There are several great getaways but there is only one escape to inner peace -- the natural environment which surrounds you at The Ranch and which The Ranch seeks to encompass everything about your visit to ensure the rest and relaxation that you're celebrity client deserves.

Review of Property:

During ITLM I met w/ the Sales and Marketing Manager, Friederike Lockau, from one of the Rocco Forte Collection hotels. It is a sophisticated, contemporary and comfortable English style boutique hotel. The property has 117 stylish bedrooms, including 29 luxurious suites (of which there are two Royal and two Presidential Suites Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Book - which he wrote whilst staying in the hotel, to The Wicked Wit of Winston Churchill as he was a regular visitor to the property, along with Lord Byron.

On a recent visit to London, I contacted Friederike along with her colleague, Mark Hulton, to set up a meeting to tour the hotel. They were both very kind and accommodating, and even were able to get me the best table in the house for their sold out High tea over the holiday season. It was wonderful! They are both very eager to work with ACPA.

All the rooms are beautiful and comfortable to North American standards, while still feeling like you are in England. The hotel has discreet back entrances for hotel access. On certain floors of the hotel, rooms can be adjoining and also closed and sectioned off for more privacy from other hotel guests. Meeting and rooms available for private dinners.

In an appointment to meet with a Sofitel Hotel representative from their Jumeirah property in Dubai, I was also introduced to the Director of Sales and Marketing, Larry Tsoumas, from their Chicago location. Mr. Tsoumas was so excited to have the opportunity to meet with me. He previously heard about the ACPA and was hoping to meet a contact with our group.

Mr. Tsoumas explained that he was very open to working with us and to let him know what ever our needs are and would be willing work with us (i.e discounted rooms, packages, etc). He would love the opportunity to present to our group what the hotel has to offer. They are located right of the Magnificent Mile in Chicago hear the famous Water Tower. They have a phenomenal restaurant on site with a fame chef, and bar at the hotel that is lively, trendy and always busy.

Review of Property:

Robert De Niro's hotel in New York City specifically remodeled to cater to the entertainment community.

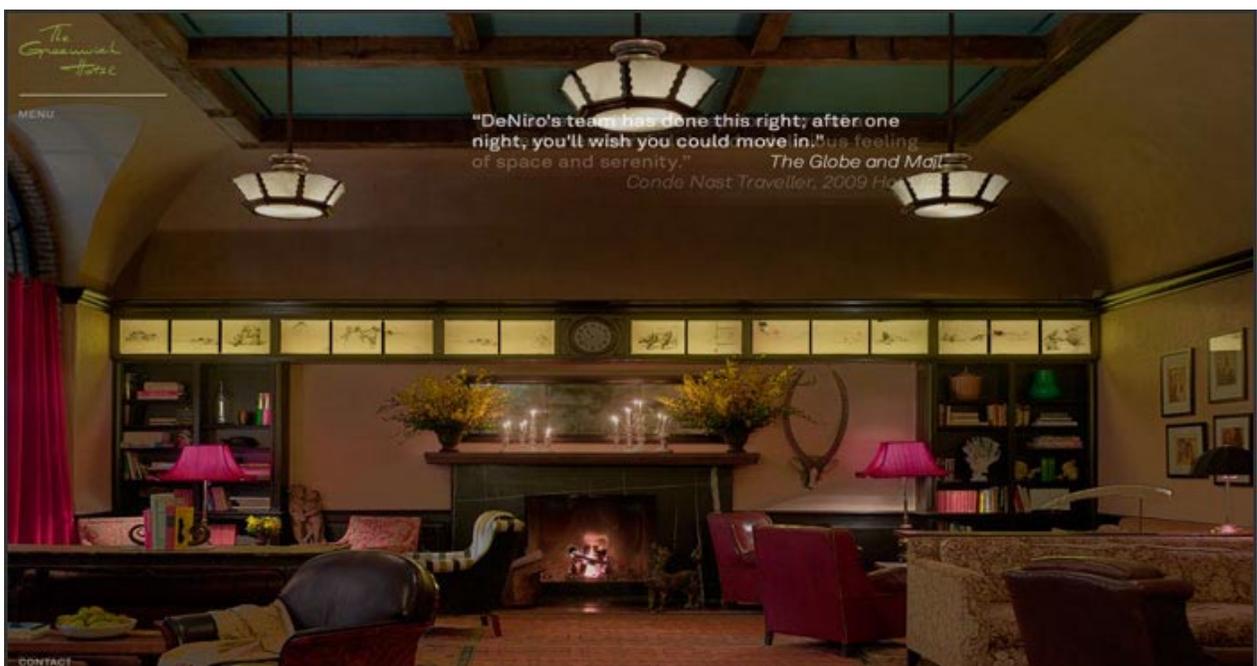

From their brochure:

The Greenwich Hotel has 88 rooms, of which no two are alike. The furnishings draw from a wide range of cultural influences - from the hand-loomed Tibetan silk rugs to the patterns of Moroccan tile. Rooms have Dux beds, oak floors, soaking tubs, 10 foot ceilings with hand carved moldings, and small libraries.

The amenities and services are as well considered as the design. Houseguests can opt for in-room check-in, newspapers from their hometowns delivered daily, and a refrigerator stocked with specialty items of their choice.

Additionally, the Greenwich offers a full array of amenities that sophisticated travelers have come to expect. This includes HDTV, iPod docking stations, free wireless Internet, and a range of bath and body products developed especially for the hotel.

The Greenwich Hotel will be hosting a 2010 FAM trip, as well as other offers on a case by case basis.

Review of Property:

Exquisite Property, has many golf courses. Luxury and Elegance at its finest. Great for Skiing in the winter. Also they have activities for kids if the 'adults' want to play....full time activities for kids of all ages.

Review of Property:

This property was extremely modern. I love the fact that the hotel has an ice bar that is 10 degrees below 0. You can go in have drink, etc. Moreover, the hotel does distribute key cards for hotel room entry. The only way you can enter is through your personal finger prints (very impressive). I also love the décor. Even though the rooms are contemporary, they still have a wholesome and comfortable feel. One of the other features that I love is the glass check in desk, which is located outside of the hotel...so awesome. You check in outside and then enter the hotel. Very nice touch!

The hotel décor is just amazing.

Just a note, I was told a number of celebrities frequent this property.

Review of Property:

This property is simply gorgeous.

The best feature of this property is the roof top penthouse suite. There is a Jacuzzi on the balcony which over looks all of Rome. The view is breathtaking. I also love this property because it is truly a luxury property. The first hotel in Europe to be part of the exclusive Waldorf Astoria Collection, the Rome Cavalieri is more than just a 5-star property. With an art collection that outshines many museums, with a Grand Spa that would be the envy of a prestige health resort, and with standards of luxury that set it apart from other hotels, the Cavalieri brings new meaning to notions of Italian style, and new purpose to the fine art of exclusive hospitality

Known as "tranquility wrapped in blue," the island of Anguilla, in the Caribbean's British West Indies, is just five miles from St. Maarten and twenty miles from St. Barths. It is supremely private, wonderfully tranquil and comfortably removed. From luxury Caribbean accommodations, gourmet dining, and sea-view wellness spa, to its expert personalized service and relaxed island sophistication...“this is the art of the getaway.” The resort opened in 2009.

Also worth noting:

- High-speed wireless Internet access in interior common areas and accommodations

Nomads of the Seas is a unique ship which offers three programs that travel through Patagonia as never seen before; by air, land and water. It accommodates 28 guests and 32 crew members. It has its own helicopter which can take guests to the most remote areas along with a multitude of watercraft. This would be the ultimate in an adventure travel experience while at the same time boasting gourmet meals, comfort and luxury. Each trip is custom fit to the interests of the passengers for activities and locations. The interior was decorated and designed by the renowned Chilean decorator, Enrique Concha B. "The ship is decorated with a touch of clarity, intimacy, refinement, warmth and simplicity."

There are 10 deluxe twin cabins and 2 deluxe king cabins located on the second deck and 2 premium king cabins on the forth.

Each cabin has a private bathroom with hair dryers, air conditioning and heat controls, safe deposit box, electricity plugs, as well as storage in drawers and under the bed. Each room has panoramic windows to enjoy the breathtaking sites.

There is a spacious and comfortable combination lounge, dining room and bar area in the boat deck. This is where you would do much of your socializing and eat your meals. The setting is casual and filled with fun and entertainment. There are also spa tubs and a steam room.

Among the many adventures they offer are "ultimate" fly fishing, wild life adventures, heli-skiing, nature photography and a culinary program.

Sept. – April, with Mid Dec.-Mid-March as their high season. 7 nights, approx. $9K-$15K per person.

Review of Property:

The Ritz-Carlton, Powerscourt in County Wicklow is situated amidst one of the most scenic and historic estates in Ireland. Located 30 minutes from Dublin on 1000 acres of tranquil countryside with a wooded site overlooking the slopes of The Sugar Loaf Mountain. These grounds were film locations for films such as "Braveheart" and "Rob Roy". For fun, guests can relax in the authentic Irish Pub downstairs called McGills. The pub was built with actual furniture and décor from surrounding pubs that were either torn down or remodeled. For fine dining, there is Gordon Ramsay at Powerscourt which offers al fresco dining and spectacular views of the picturesque surroundings. For pure relaxation, head towards their 30,000 square foot spa by Espa. Whether guests want to be wined & dined or simply relax amongst the 12th Century gardens, The Ritz-Carlton will impress guests with the most refined tastes and appreciation for the natural beauty that surrounds this amazing property.

As a side note, Jill O'Hare was wonderful to speak with. Her enthusiasm and friendly disposition makes her an ideal person to work with for our most discerning clients.

Review of Property:

This is a beautiful property and seems ideal for employers that are planning on shooting in Vancouver or are just looking for a great vacation. There are 12 private lodges and 88 luxurious rooms and suites. The lodges are equipped with state of the art kitchens and can be fully stocked with whatever your employer wishes. You can also arrange for a personal chef to come in and cook if your employer wants to have a dinner party. Sonora resort offers five-star accommodation and cuisine, world-class ecological and wildlife tours, salmon fishing, luxurious spa services at their on-site spa facility (also available to come right to your room). Additional activities include Grizzly Bear Tours, Kayaking, Hiking, Guided Salmon fishing, Fly-fishing, Cooking Classes, Golfing, Swimming, Tennis, and more. When speaking to Stan Smith, it was evident that he loves working at Sonora Resort and feels that he can accommodate all of our employers needs. I am attaching a fact sheet that Stan sent to me recently just to give more of an idea of what Sonora Resort has to offer.

Review of Property:

This is a beautiful property perfect for our employers. Each guest is greeted with a personal butler that will escort them to their room where they can check in and take care of any other aspect of their visit. One of the things that I thought was a fun bonus to the property was the private dining room. Inside the room is a life size portrait of Thomas Jefferson with a secret door behind it so celebrities can go to and from the room without having to walk through the main dining room.

Review of Property:

First and foremost, the Beau Rivage Hotel – Neuchatel is SPECTACULAR! From the grounds to the rooms it's as perfect as one would expect from the Beau Rivage group.

Right on the Lake Neuchatel in western Switzerland, north of Geneva (where the Beau Rivage also has a stunning hotel) no matter what season, offers an incredible relaxing environment.

What really 'sold' me on the BRH – Neuchatel, is they offer a 2 day event where they send you to work with a master watchmaker (as the city is known to be the watch making capitol of the world) and after the second day, you leave with a watch YOU HAVE MADE! I'm not talking about 'build a bear' you actually sit and put the mechanics of the watch together. Think how special it would be to send your client there with their partner and they each make the other a watch. It's a package that gives them a memento AND a story that will be shared over and over.

As awesome as ILTM was, in the 60+ vendors I met, there were only a few that really offered something extra special and were really thinking 'how can we provide a memory that will last a lifetime' Beau Rivage - Neuchatel, seriously hit that mark!

Review of Property:

I really wasn't expecting to be 'wowed' by The Ranch at Rock Creek, as it was a last minute scheduled appointment.

But DAMN!!!

It was clear that Paul Robertson honestly believes in what the RRC provides for its' clientele. An experience that you're not going to find anywhere else. Sure, there are amazing island getaways offering private beaches, 5 staff to each guest, isolation, blah blah blah, to be had, but this is something completely different (first and foremost no beach!) The rooms / cabins are high end, but they make sense to the environment, it's not like the owners built a house in the Montana and then had Stark come and decorate. It's perfect for anything from a family get away to a really REALLY brilliant male (or female) bonding trip.

If you have a client that enjoys hunting, fishing, photography, hiking and more BUT wants to still be pampered, and having 5 star dining, send them to the Ranch at Rock Creek!
