As soon as we arrived at LAX we were greeted by American Airlines representatives and taken to the Admirals Club. I have to say, after dealing with a lot of different airport greeting services throughout the years, their own (of course can only be used if your boss travels on American) were very efficient, had more airport access and could pretty much hold a plane if so needed. Highly recommended!

Arriving at the lobby of the Las Ventanas resort, we were greeted by a wonderful and friendly staff that made you feel right at home. My room was amazing and I could have just stayed in there for the duration of the trip. The Mexican style décor was beautifully tasteful and everything very fresh and clean. Most rooms had their own balcony with a private Jacuzzi. Some even had their own private pool.

In all, the resort is very prepared for high profile clients. They have suites and rooms for every need. Even with elevators leading straight to and from parking, which makes it very easy to be unnoticed. And the resort is very quiet. It's a place to come and relax, be pampered and eat great food. With only 2-½ hour travel time from LAX, I would highly recommend sending your boss there.

Thank you so much Barbara for this amazing experience!

Las Ventanas al Paraíso- Literal translation to English "Windows to Paradise." From the airport, we were whisked away in Mercedes SUV's. They gave us refreshing hand towels, cold water and snacks. Upon arrival at the resort, we were welcomed by the staff with cocktails and given a choice to enjoy lunch, the spa or even both. After lunch, we were individually checked in by our butler, who gave us a tour of our room and all amenities the resort had to offer.

The resort is comprised of suites only. The suites we were generously given for the weekend had a beach view with two levels of balconies and a private Jacuzzi. All rooms are equipped with free Wireless Internet, Satellite TV & music, wood-burning fireplace, fruit bowl, bottled water, full service mini bar and a full sized hair dryer. A lovely extra, was the tequila welcome (if you don't drink it your butler will bubble wrap it for you to bring home with you).

After relaxing by the pool, we enjoyed dinner and drinks at The Restaurant, which was an amazing culinary experience. Even though the hotel was at full capacity it did not feel crowded. A celebrity can truly enjoy a vacation here. Certain suites have underground access which allows one to maintain complete privacy. Nothing was left out in the planning of this breathtaking resort and the staff only added to the luxurious experience. This resort truly lives up to its name.

Los Ventanas was amazing.

From the vip American Airlines flight to being met by our own personal butler and whisked away in a Mercedes.

The staff met us in the open air lobby with open arms and we were taken to our own private suite.

I particularly liked my jacuzzi on the balcony, where I could relax and leave my assistant duties behind in LA.

Turn down service, chocolates, tequila and my own butler. What more could a boy want?

The pool was pure heaven. Infinity pool that went on for days. Lounging in the coolwater with my lovely ACPA co-horts was a treat in itself.

The meals were first class. Breakfast Lunch and Dinner. Emma and I like our food Hot, and that's what they gave us. Any special request was answered.

VIP treatment was 5 Star. Our own vip Cooking class ended a perfect trip. They had to pry me out of my room the day we left. I can only hope to go back again for a longer stay.

Thanks Barbara!!!

Upon arrival at the First Class Domestic American terminal, we were greeted by a Five Star Service representative who escorted us through the check-in process, expedited our security screening, and deposited us in the Admirals Club lounge to wait for our departure. AA Five star service, although similar to other airport greeters, works directly for American Airlines and therefore have full access to all your needs while traveling with American.

Las Ventanas makes everything worry free. They go above and beyond with excellent attention to detail which makes this hotel in a class of its own. From the personalized sewing kit coordinated to your vacation wardrobe, to the choice of aromatherapy candles lit during turndown service, to your evening room amenity treat - no stone is left unturned by the warm and welcoming staff.

Each suite is exceptionally spacious and comfortable with exquisite furnishings and unique hand-crafted Mexican appointments. My suite had a fireplace for those romantic evenings, a Jacuzzi on the balcony, and a telescope for viewing the panoramic views of the Sea of Cortez and nightly stargazing.

Thank you to Barbara, Joanna, Heath, Jonas, Lionel, and Pamela for this extraordinary opportunity, what a memorable trip!
