

The Pierre
NEW YORK
A TAJ HOTEL

By Jennifer Kramer

Step into a different world. A world filled with luxury and embraces an Old New York feel with a very modern touch. That is The Pierre off Central Park in New York City; a hotel that is unquestionably at the top of its game. From the moment we arrived, we felt special. The smiling front desk, the personal elevator attendant (yes, they still have an elevator attendant- one of the last remaining in the United States), the knowledgeable concierge.... everything was perfect.

The two room suite was beyond our imagination; soft robes, plush pillows, rooms with a view. The Hotel will be beyond what your clients would ever imagine. It is worth every penny. I communicated with three different contacts in booking my stay. Donna McGovern is the NYC contact. Donna gave me a site tour that made my mouth drop. Each room was more beautiful than the next.

Both Tara and Melinda work out of Los Angeles for Taj Hotels and were a tremendous help with orchestrating my trip. Below is the contact information for all three. Please reach out to them for your bosses. Taj Hotels has many resorts that are just as wonderful as the Pierre. Enjoy!
